

Joe Petrie's List of Free Newfoundland and Labrador Genealogy Web Sites

Newfoundland's Grand Banks Genealogy Site <http://ngb.chebucto.org/> - This is the largest collection on the web of transcribed original source material relating to the Newfoundland. The site has more than 16,000 separate files of information. Because complete Census records and vital records were not collected until the 20th Century, Census substitutes, parish records, directories and cemetery records are the only option for prior years.

StonePics - Cemeteries of Newfoundland <http://www.stonepics.com/> - StonePics is a project to photograph and index every cemetery, headstone, and monument in Newfoundland. The completion of this project makes Newfoundland the first state or province in North America to have a comprehensive database for finding cemeteries and headstones. About a quarter of a million people and 1,700 cemeteries are included. The index is downloadable.

Cemeteries of Newfoundland \(Interment.Net\) <http://www.interment.net/can/nf/index.htm> - A collaborative effort of cemetery preservation advocates working to increase public awareness and activism in preserving, protecting and restoring endangered and forgotten historic cemeteries worldwide.

Newfoundland Census records <http://www.censusfinder.com/newfoundland-census-records.htm> - This is a link-to-links document to scores of records from the 1600s to 1945.

Periodical Article Bibliography <http://www.library.mun.ca/qeii/cns/pab.php> - This is a database of more than 70,000 entries since the 1600s.

Newfoundland Great War Heritage Project <http://www.nfarchives.net/> - This website is intended to assist family, schools, and other researchers conducting Newfoundland and Labrador genealogical, and cultural heritage research by providing a searchable database of the Newfoundland Regiment (1914-1918) nominal roll index.
