Alexander, son of Johannes, son of John Daniel.

Alexander was born at Marriot's Cove on September 10, 1806. On December 30, 1830 at Chester, he married Sarah Bezanson of Marriot's Cove. Family members have thought she was an adopted child with the name of Marritt, but the records show she was born December 27, 1807, the third child of Alexander Bezanson and his wife Catherine Sweinhamer. Her mother probably died when she was born or soon afterwards as Alexander remarried November 8, 1808 to Anna Barbara Lantz by whom he had seven children. Following his death some time before 1826, Anna Barbara married James Marriott. Four children of the Bezanson family were to marry into the Hiltz family, including Sarah's half sister, Hannah, who married Alexander's brother, Edmund.

Alexander and Sarah Hiltz moved to New Ross shortly after it was settled, where Alexander was a farmer. There homestead is still in the Hiltz family with great grandson, Hencie Hiltz being the present owner. His brother Russell Hiltz, told me of a huge flat boulder, like a stage, being on the property years ago. Alexander's daughter, Maria Louisa, conducted Sunday School classes from this boulder. Unfortunately, the rock was destroyed and taken away in recent years. Another story I have heard is of the large ash tree that stood on the property, by the driveway. The tree was believed to have been planted by an old soldier by the name of Tupper. When the new highway was put through New Ross, (sometime before 1967), the old tree had to be removed. It measured 6 feet in diameter and stood between 40 and 45 feet high. Alexander and Sarah were Church of England. Alexander died in 1875 and was buried in the old New Ross cemetery, I am told, beside his son David's first wife, who died shortly after marriage.

Sarah spent the remainder of her life with her son James, and died on the North Mountain, March, 1883. She is buried in St. John's Churchyard, Church Street, Nova Scotia.

Notes for James Edmund Hiltz

Sources: Doug Skidmore and Marie Bishop

James Edmund Hiltz, son of Alexander, was born May 1830. Between 1857 and 1859, James purchased 251 acres of land on the North Mountain for 576 pounds. On September 24, 1860 at St. John's Church Church Street, James married Sarah Catherine Barkhouse of Blomidon. The Church records show that the couple signed their wedding banns with "X"s. A search of the 1891 census, reveals that while James and Sarah could read, they were unable to write.

Granddaughter Mary (Hiltz) Milbury, remembered her grandmother Sarah, telling her that when they had moved to Scots Bay Road (by oxcart) there was no road, only a cow path. At one time there was a watering trough going up the mountain on the left hand side where everyone stopped to water their team and get a cold drink. There was a big willow tree that is supposed to have grown from a willow walking stick that James stuck in the ground.

James is noted with having a robust constitution. When he died (October 13, 1912), his obituary reported that he had received medical attention for the first time in his life. James is also remembered for his lovely curly hair. Grand daughter Lillian (Barkhouse) Schofield, has a curl of his hair in her possession.

Sarah is remembered as a feisty, quick tempered lady who was an excellent gardener. James and Sarah moved to Canaan with their son Thomas and his family about 1902. They lived in a small house opposite Thomas's farm. Sarah was born in 1835, and died April 23, 1925. They are both buried in St. John's Churchyard, Church Street.

They had seven children.

Marie Bishop

Sarah was from Cape Blomidon. They lived at Scots Bay and later at Canaan.

Thomas was born at New Ross March 5, 1862 and died August 1, 1952. Thomas and Rebecca were married December 29, 1833 by Rev. Ruggles, Kentville Church of England. Rebecca was born March 14, 1864 in Chester, Nova Scotia, the Daughter of Daniel and Sarah Rafuse. She resided at Steam Mill Village at the time of her marriage. When he was young, Thomas worked as a ship carpenter and also made a few trips to sea. For a number of years he and Rebecca lived on Scots Bay Road where most of their family were born. In 1902, they bought a farm in Canaan, Nova Scotia, where they spent the remainder of their lives. Thomas is remembered as a small, energetic man who was always busy. Rebecca was an accomplished sewer and knitter. We have in our possession a pair of double knit mittens made when she was in her seventies. Rebecca died September 25, 1946. They are both buried in the Oak Grove Cemetery, Kentville, Nova Scotia. They had fourteen children.

PARRSBORO, Jan, 23 - Frank Owen Hiltz, 53, a member of the Veterans' Guard of Canada passed away suddenly at Sherbrooke, Quebec, Saturday. A few days previously he had entered hospital for an emergency appendicitis operation. He was reported to be making satisfactory recovery when Saturday afternoon Mrs. Hiltz received word that he was seriously ill and while she was making preparations to leave for Sherbrooke another wire came, within three or four hours saying her husband had passed away.

A veteran of both world wars, the deceased served overseas for three years in the First World War. In November, 1940 he again enlisted with the Forestry Battalion and served overseas from March 1941 until October 1943. While in England he had a reunion with two of his sons, Billie and Hughie, who were serving there in the Canadian Army. After his return to Canada in 1943 he transferred to the VGC (Veterans' Guard of Canada) and has been recently stationed at Sherbrooke, along with a number of other Parrsboro men. Only three weeks ago he returned to his unit after spending the New Year's leave with his family here.

Born in Canning, the deceased was a son of Mrs. John Hiltz and the late Mr. Hiltz of that place. He has resided in Parrsboro over 25 years, since shortly after his return from the First World War, and has many friends here.

Left to mourn his loss are his widow, the former Clara MacAloney of Parrsboro; four daughters and three sons: Frances (Mrs Roland Willigar), Parrsboro; Agnes (Mrs. Austin Skidmore), Hamilton, Ont.; Ritta (Mrs. Harold Quinn), Halfway River; Blanche at home; Billie serving with the Canadian Army in Italy; Hughie, serving in Holland, and Claude at home.

Also surviving are his mother, three sisters: Mrs. David Milberry, Fort Lorne, Annapolis County; Mrs. Wilfred Borden in Bridgetown; Mrs. Wylie Tupper, Scots Bay and three brothers: George in Blomidon, Fred and Walter in Canning.

The remains are to arrive from Sherbrooke tonight and it is expected the funeral will be held from St. George's Anglican Church on Wednesday afternoon, with military honors.

Frank had a post office in the house and he delivered the mail.
Frank is remembered by Agnes as being very strict.

About the source of Doug Skidmore's material: I don't know whether Doug's web site was the source. Because I can't remember ever opening Doug's web site on the Lunenburg County Site, I have not attributed the web site in this document. In fact, I have not been able to determine the source of the Doug Sizemore material. I can't check the web site because the link does not work. I believe that the material was part of a suitcase full of paper provided by Charles Buchanan one evening in Sydney. Our agreement was that I would copy all the paper and send it back to him. ### Background:

Anna Catherine Boutilier was the eldest child (of eight) in the Boutilier family of Jean George Boutilier and Sarah Grange that sailed from Europe to make a new home in Canada. Jean George and Sarah never reached Canada, They died at sea.

In Cape Breton, Anna Catherine's brother Jacques James Boutilier "James" is famous for buying Cox Heath farm. James transported most of his family from the St. Margaret's Bay area to Cape Breton on his ships to settle the Coxheath community.

This register report for the descendants of Anna Catherine (Catherine) Boutilier and Jean John Besancon complements a modified register report for Catherine Boutilier's Marriette descendants published in cbgen.org a few years ago. Anna Catherine and Etienne Marriette are on my mother's direct line. Catherine was born in Etobon, Montbeliard, immigrated to Nova Scotia in 1752, resettled to Lunenburg in 1753 and married twice in Lunenburg. This report is covers only the descendants of Catherine's marriage to Jean John Besancon.

About my Boutilier Register Reports:

In April, 2013, when Norm MacDonald asked me to write articles for cbgen.org/Records/Research and for Records/Families, he suggested that I include articles on the Jean George Boutilier and Sarah Grange families. I told Norm that the task was too gigantic for me to tackle because Jean George and Sarah had eight children – and each probably had thousands of descendants. I did commit to a piece-meal approach.

Acknowledgements - Family Historians and Fellow Genealogists:

Your generosity with your records is really appreciated. I tried to point-out in the Notes when there was information that was inconsistent. Any errors that remain are mine.

The major contributors are: Doug Skidmore and Julia I. Baker. Some of Doug's material may have been gathered from his pages on the Lunenburg County GENWEB web site and provided by Charles Buchanan. All of Julia's material came from her web site.

Jay Boutilier deserves special mention. His work was immense. He provided death dates, burial dates and places, along with obituaries. His work to correlate his material to my previously published register report made for faster updates. I appreciate his work because it had to be both very tedious and time-consuming.

Maria Bishop's book on the Hiltz families was tremendous.

Bob Hegerich's World Connect Web Site has amazing details for Boutilier researchers. What amazes me more is that Bob is not a Boutilier. What amazes me even more is the paucity of records attributed to Bob in this report.

John Howie does not get enough credit for his work that was usually shared with me by Charles "Chick" Buchanan, who mentored me. John introduced me to the works of Kim Stevens, Bob Hegerich, Don Shankle and Doug Skidmore.

Dana B. Cobb is a wonderful local source. Every time that I travel from my Norwood MA home through the Cobb's Corner section in Canton, Sharon and Stoughton MA, I think of Dana and his ancestors who settled the area.

Finally, Steven Franey contributed material to Doug. Thanks to Steven for sharing. In my seminars, I recommend that all attendees share. We need more sharers like Steven. Kudos!

Acknowledgements - Family, Relatives, Friends, Family Historians and Fellow Genealogists:

A gigantic amount of my Boutilier research came from the late Charles "Chick" Buchanan, who fortunately made a habit of giving me piles of paper to take home, to copy and to send back to him. I discovered Charles by reading his mother's notebook which was donated to the Beaton Institute and which was microfilmed by the Family History Library of Salt Lake City. (Imagine my reaction to researching my mother's Boutilier family and finding my father's family on it.) Charles' gave me a pile of paper happened every three years when I was in Cape Breton to visit my late Aunt Dorothy Irene Petrie Donovan in Dominion. It was repeated a couple of times at my home. I suspect that Charles provided a healthy amount of John Howie's information.

Charles, John Howie and I had dinner together one evening in Sydney where John educated me on the Lunenburg County Personal and Family Genealogy Pages with a focus on various authors like Kim Steven's pages. Thank you, John. You started another hobby. I now collect and publish articles on genealogy web sites. Family and friends tell me that a strong point is my use of the World Wide Web and the Google Browser to find relatives – mostly dead ones!

In addition, special thanks to George Lawrence for sharing massive amounts of his research on Boutiliers. George collects Obituaries and has an amazing database; to Brenda Maruca and Elizabeth Taylor who have provided their knowledge and expertise on the South Shore Boutiliers; and to David Keith McMullin has provided many records both to me and to Bob Hegerich. You all are special!

Thanks to the following who have shared their research on Web Sites. Kim Stevens, Don Shankle and Bob Hegerich's web page on the Personal and Family Genealogy Pages of the Lunenburg County GENWEB Web Site were major sources.

Thanks to my cousins and other individuals who provided Boutilier information: Susan Bottom, Elaine Boutilier, Ruth Boutilier, Ann A. Brown, , Greg Cummings, Helen Darcy, Dorothy Petrie Donovan, Jane Ebel, Sharon Godin, Louise Height, General Donald Lewis, King F. Lowe, Linda MacDonald, Linda MacIsaac, Norine MacIntyre, Laurie MacPherson, Xavier McGillivray, Paul Musial, Ian Ross, Cathy Thomas, Patricia Tremblay, Edna Waller, and Eunice Woodill.

Finally, thanks to CBGHA staff especially to Norm MacDonald for asking me to become part of the cbgen.org team. Roger Tobin has been especially helpful in identifying "the things that go bump in the night" for material that I submit for publication.

Acknowledgements – Web Sites:

Thanks to Ancestry, Ancestry.ca, and Ancestry Library for US and Canada Censuses, Immigration, Border Crossings, Passenger Manifests, Naturalizations, Vital Information etc. I love being able to access the images of the source documents. I even use Ancestry's Members Trees.

Also thanks to Family Search. I gather a lot from their collections, like the Antigonish Catholic Diocese records and Massachusetts Death and Burial records.

I love the Automated Census of Canada for 1851, 1852, 1901 and 1911 Censuses. My input was recorded.

Finally, I gather from: AmericanAncestors.org for Massachusetts Vital Information; Cbgen.org for Censuses, Obituaries, Cemetery records, Funeral Home records, Church Censuses, Parish records and lots more; Novascotiagenealogy for Birth, Marriage, Death and Burial records; Lunenburg County Personal and Family Genealogy Pages on the Lunenburg County GENWEB Web Site for access to Kim Steven's, Bob Hegerich's and Don Shankle's databases; Victoria Boutilier's Web Site; Robert Peach's Web Site; Miners' Museum Web Site etc.
