MAINE RESEARCH

Researchers into family history who enjoy a different type of meeting may want to attend that Ancient Landmarks Society of Parsonfield, which from spring to fall meets on the fourth Sunday of each month at a point near the Maine - New Hampshire line.

Occasionally someone is invited to give a brief talk, but generally the emphasis is on the exchange of information and on the assistance which others in the group may be able to give to each researcher with his or her problems. There is a modest collection of genealogical works there to consult, and a photocopier is available to facilitate the mutual assistance which is given.

These meetings begin at 11:00 A.M. on April 26, May 24, June 28, July 26, August 23 and September 27. Most researchers bring their lunches with them, and coffee is provided at the hall, which is the Public Library (once the Community Hall) on Route 160, North Parsonfield, ME.
