

What is the Brockton Library Foundation?

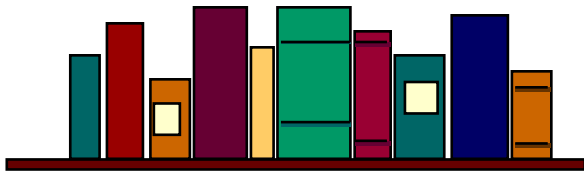

The Brockton Library Foundation is a non-profit 501 c3 community group that helps to support special library programs, such as book discussions, children's events, and the museum pass program. The Foundation also raised money to renovate Main Library and successfully renovated East Branch and are currently fundraising to renovate the West Branch.

How do I join?

Just fill out the membership form inside this brochure and mail it in. Your membership dues help support all Brockton libraries. Provide an email to stay in touch.

After I join, then what?

Attend monthly planning meetings is a good way to make new friends, help the library, and have a great time. Active members assist with activities in support of the Brockton Public Library. Your help with any events will be greatly appreciated. Plans include volunteer opportunities and Foundation sponsored events at the library and elsewhere in the community. We need your support.
