Death Added to Total of Island's Big Forest Fire

Shock Proves Fatal to William Boutilier, 98 Year-Old Wadden's Cove Fisherman

Glace Bay, Aug. 23 - Shock resulting from the harrowing experience he went through on Tuesday when he had to flee from his home in a boat from the fire that laid waste the fishing hamlet of Wadden's Cove where he lived practically all 98 years of his life, resulted in the death of William Boutilier, death taking place at the home of George Wadden whence the aged gentleman was taken after being rescued from the fire-ridden area of Wadden's Cove.

Notable Character

A notable character in the place where he lived for nearly a hundred years, the late Mr. Boutilier was widely known and universally esteemed. He was married three times, his last wife and eleven children surviving him.

Survivors

Surviving daughters are: Mrs. James MacLEOD, and Mrs. Charles MacKAY, residing in Dominion; Mrs. Robert BOUTILIER, Sydney Mines; Mrs. Edward SPENCER, Bridgeport; Mrs. D. A. McLEOD (sic... surname should be MacDONALD), Reserve; Mrs. George LOCKE, Montreal; and Miss Hilda, who resided with her father; sons are: Lewis and George, Port Morien; John J. and Albert, Wadden's Cove.

Grandchildren

There are seventy-one grandchildren, and ninety-eight great-grandchildren. Two brothers, James, at Coxheath; and Levi in Washington, D.C., both over ninety years of age. A sister, Mrs. Mary ANDREWS, aged one-hundred and three years, passed away at Coxheath a few months ago.

Notes: I have a DOB for Muckles as 4 Aug 1840 (could actually be 4 Aug 1839 since his father John James Boutilier and first wife, Elizabeth Wadden 1821-1862 were married 11 Sep 1838). I have yet to look up the sister, Mary's (1842?-1935) obit. One can tell that there was some exaggeration though, as brother James would have only been 81 in 1935!

I have not found any true info on brother Levi's wife and family either.

Notes for Elizabeth Ann Boutilier

The Town of Norwood's records for Elizabeth A. Boutilier Shedd's death indicates that she died on 2 December 1951 (Mass Vital Records Vol 77 page 248). The Norwood Messenger for Dec.4 on its front page indicated that she was to be buried on Dec. 5 at a Funeral Mass from St. Catherine's and buried at Highland Cemetery. It indicated: that she lived with her daughter (Mrs. Thomas Lynch) and grandson (Thomas Lynch, Jr.) at 22 Adams St.; that she died at the Norwood Nursing Home; and that she was being waked at the same Funeral Home. It also indicated that Elizabeth's grand-daughter was Mrs. Tom Maloney from Dorchester.

No mention of brothers or sisters etc.

If the Town's records are correct, she was born in 1875 and was 76 when she died.

Notes for Emily Ann Andrews

She had eight years of schooling in Nova Scotia which was unusual for a girl of that time. She attended St. Mark's Episcopal Church.

Emma as she was called came to Boston through Maine by train to work for the Revere family in Canton with her cousin Ann MacDonald. They owned the copper mines in Nova Scotia and were descendants of Paul Revere. She told relatives many times how they told her if there was a fire to take a particular trunk out of the house because they belonged to Paul Revere. When she left there to be married they gave her a dowry of $300.00 and a trunk full of lace, linen, and curtains. Plus, a gone with the wind lamp and cruet set which family still has today. Also they have a letter written by Mrs. Revere and a picture.

She came from Boston by train with her dowry. George Henry Boutilier her husband was already here in Whitinsville, Massachusetts with his mother and brother.

Family believe she left Nova Scotia against her father's wishes and traveled by train with Lydia, and her future husband. She stayed in Boston, Massachusetts and they traveled to work in Whitinsville. She told family many times he walked to Boston to give her a pair of gloves for an engagement gift.

She raised her own eight children with impeccable manners and to be well dressed. She had a garden and sewed their clothes. She and her husband used to can and make saurkraut for they supplies for the winter. Every Sunday afternoon after a large dinner she would lock the door and she and her family would walk up the Lackey Dam trail and have a picnic to find peace and quiet. They would gather cranberries and material to make baskets for the cemeteries. Her husband learned to make baskets as a child in Nova Scotia. She learned to use medicinal herbs as a child from her mother in Nova Scotia and gathered these too.

They spent their evenings gathering at home with music. Playing the piano and various instruments and singing. That was an important part of their life.

She took in various nieces and nephews as they came from Nova Scotia to get a start in the USA. Among them were Murray Andrews his sisters Nina and Pearl. Her husband's nephew James. Her mother-in-law Lydia.

The last but not least her two grandchildren that became homeless at the death of their mother - Joan & Elaine Boutilier.

Notes for George Henry Boutilier

He came to Whitinsville, Massachusetts on the train from Nova Scotia crossing the border in Vanceboro, Maine. He was employed in the Whitin Machine Works where he worked until he died. He was responsible for the improvements to the shuttle which he did not receive credit for because he couldn't read or write and had a friend draw up the plans and submit. His friend stole the rewards and the acknowledgement and in return just gave him a miter box. Even though he couldn't read or write he accomplished many things in his lifetime. He made Violins out of curly maple and made many boats. He sailed and rowed on the Meadow Pond in Whitinsville. He made miniature sail boats and raced them on the Meadow Pond. One is still in existence and in the possession of his granddaughter Lucille.

He played the violin, flute and zither. He could make fishnets and weave baskets.

He rowed across Meadow Pond from Border Street where they lived and tended a garden which he died - digging potatoes. He would put them in a bushel bag and carry them on his back to the boat. He was a very frail thin man. At the time of his death his daughter Ethel was with him and his granddaughter Joan who was five years old. She stayed with him in the wooded garden while Ethel went for help.

God saw you getting tired,
And a cure was not to be,
So He put his arms around you,
And whispered, "Come to Me".
A Golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest.
God broke our heart to prove to us
He only takes the best.

OBITUARIES

George W. Boutilier dies at 89- soldier, boxer, politician, critic
By GERALD S. GOLDSTEIN and MARTIN J. FUNKE
Journal Bulletin Staff Writers

NARRAGANSETT - George W. Boutilier, 89, of 73 E. Shore Rd., a scrappy citizen-watchdog who battled all his life - in the trenches of World War 1, in the boxing ring, and in the halls of government - died Wednesday at the Veterans Administration Regional Medical Center.

Feisty in his self-appointed role as a critic of government, whenever he felt it had become inefficient or callous, Mr. Boutilier also had a gentle side - he loved flowers and named a new strain of dahlia he developed for his wife.

And he saw government from both sides serving over the years as a city councilman and state representative in Pawtucket, and as a town councilman and tax collector in Narragansett.

But Mr. Boutilier was as much a part of government in his role as private citizen. At one meeting of the Town Council in Narragansett, he rose 71 times to shake a finger at officials and make his various points.

Affectionately dubbed "The Boot" in Narragansett by friends and adversaries alike. He was described once by an admirer as "a gadfly with the persistence of a mosquito in a dark room."

Even in his later years he continued to attend meetings and to champion a multitude of causes: tax relief for the elderly, protection of the town's salt marshes and conservation efforts to protect the pond scallops that he dearly loved to harvest and eat.

Mr. Boutilier's love of politics - and of a good scrap - absorbed much of his energy, even in the years most people reserve for more leisurely activities. In 1972, at age 76, he took over the reins of Narragansett's faltering Republican Party, and led it to an election victory.

Mr. Boutilier, a native of Whitinsville, Mass, was an Army hero in World War 1 and served in France as a motorcycle messenger with the American Expeditionary Forces, He was gassed twice, once badly enough to make him temporarily lose his eyesight.

He was decorated for valor when on Sept. 27, 1918, shell fragments plowed into his motorcycle and overturned it in a quagmire as he was attempting to get a message through. He got up, straightened out his handlebars and continued on his way.

All his life, Mr. Boutilier would proudly say, "I fought for freedom."

Mr. Boutilier was an accomplished boxer in the service, and although he never resisted a chance to say that "I had a good left and a good right" he renounced the sport because he came to believe that "it brings out the animal in man." The statement was indicative of sensitivity in his nature that blossomed especially in his flower garden, on the shore of Point Judith Pond In Narragansett's Great Island section.

His love of dahlias was so intense that he developed a strain of his own and named it the "Mrs. George Boutilier, in honor of his wife or more than 50 years, the late Gladys G. (Cooper) Boutilier.

Mr. Boutilier's vocation was as general manager of the Merchants Cold Storage Co. Providence. where he worked for 31 years. But it was as a governmental watchdog that he came into his own.

As the co-founder of a taxpayers' group, he spoke passionately against the mayoral regimes of Thomas P. and Ambrose McCoy in Pawtucket, and he was considered a pioneer in political reforms that came later in the city. In 1940, he broke a solid Democratic front, and became the sole Republican on the City Council, a foothold from which he attacked the Thomas McCoy regime as a "dictatorship."

He attacked the administration for allegedly handing out pork barrel jobs, for dispatching public works crews to do private work for politicians, and for maintaining inadequate police and fire departments.

A continuing thorn in the side of the city machine, Mr. Boutilier was once left literally in the dark. During a council meeting in 1943 - when he was in the middle of a passionate speech - the opposing Democrats adjourned the meeting and filed out of the council chamber, with the last one turning out the lights.

He was elected to the General Assembly from Pawtucket in 1946, running on an anti-corruption platform, and stepping down when his term was over. He moved to Narragansett as a summer resident in 1950, and quickly fell in love with the town.

When Hurricane Belle threatened to hit the area in 1976, he refused to leave when asked to evacuate the area.

Mr. Boutilier listened patiently while one state trooper urged him to leave, and then responded as to why he wouldn't. Turning to his garden, he said, "Look at the size of those dahlias - you won't see these every day."

The trooper gave up.

Mr. Boutilier was the son of the late George H. and Emma (Andrews ) Boutilier.

He was a charter member of the Overseas Lodge 40, F and AM, and was also a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. When he lived in Pawtucket, he was a member of the Smithfield Avenue Congregational Church.

He leaves a daughter, Lucille B. Hacking, of North Kingston; two brothers; Ernest Boutilier of Whitinsville and Chester Boutilier of Harrisville; two sisters, Ethel Boutilier, Hildegard Johnson, both of Harrisville, and a grandson.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 AM at the Avery Funeral Home, 58 Columbia St., Wakefield. Burial with military honors will be in Quidnessett Memorial Cemetery, North Kingston.

ANDREWS, Bertha Genevieve - 1928-2006, Port Morien. It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of our beloved mother, Bertha Genevieve Andrews, on May 21, 2006, in Glace Bay Health Care Complex after a lengthy illness. Born in Port Morien on April 21, 1928, she was a daughter of the late John and Adalaide (Murrant) Miles. Prior to her marriage, Bertha worked for a short time with H. Hopkins Ltd. before assuming her responsibilities as a full-time wife and mother. She was a private person by nature, totally devoted to her family. Mom had a number of favourite pastimes, the most of which was playing cards, sometimes into the early hours of the morning. Mom enjoyed reading, crossword puzzles, cryptoquotes, knitting, and rarely missed her favourite daytime dramas. Mom was a wealth of information with her vast knowledge of trivia, past and current events. She taught us that material possessions aren't nearly as important as time spent with loved ones. She kept her dignity and humour until the end, as she always loved to laugh. She will be sadly missed by her daughter, Kathy (Fraser); sons, Keith (Jeane), Kevin (Wendy), and Gordon (Susanne); loving grandchildren, Keith Jr., Kevin Jr., Brent, Andrew, Stuart, Tiffany, Vanessa, Melissa, Katelyn, and Jillian. Also surviving are sisters, Lena Giovanetti and Helen Penny. Besides her parents, Bertha was predeceased by her husband of 52 years, Gordon, on February 14, 2006; daughter, Karen in infancy; brothers, Cecil, Edgar, and Roy. There will be no visitation by request. A funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Port Morien, Rev. Stacey Renouf officiating. Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to V.J. McGillivray Funeral Home, 16 Reserve St., Glace Bay. Donations in Bertha's memory may be made to the A.L.S. Society of Nova Scotia or St. Paul's Anglican Church, Port Morien. Interment for Bertha and her husband, Gordon, will take place in Black Brook Cemetery following the funeral service.

Acknowledgements:

Background

In April, 2013, when Norm MacDonald asked me to write articles for Records/Research and for Records/Families, he suggested that I include articles on the Jean George Boutilier and Sarah Grange families who came to Halifax in 1752. I told Norm that the task was too gigantic for me to tackle because Jean George and Sarah had eight children – and each probably had thousands of descendants.

I did commit to a piece-meal approach.

Family, Relatives, Friends, Family Historians and Fellow Genealogists:

Your generosity with your records is really appreciated. I tried to point-out in the Notes when there was information that was inconsistent. Any errors that remain are mine.

Gigantic amounts of records came from John Howie, George Lawrence and David Keith McMullin. Thank you for sharing. Charles “Chick” Buchanan also provided some records. I suspect that Charles provided a healthy amount of John Howie’s information. John also educated me on the Lunenburg County Personal and Family Genealogy Pages (now the Lunenburg GENWEB) with a focus on Kim Steven’s pages. Thank you – each of you are in a class by yourself!

Every once in a while, I open a copy of Kim Stevens’ records and as usual I am always amazed. Kim is also one of a kind! We all should follow his example of sharing!

Francis Xavier MacGillivray , Elizabeth Taylor and Brenda Maruca have helped me immensely. Xavier’s patience is especially important to me!

Also, very special thanks to Patricia Tremblay, Alan Gokey , and Kathleen Orrell Hagan. Their contributions are appreciated.

Thanks to the following who have shared their research on Web Sites. Kim Stevens, Don Shankle and Bob Hegerich’s web page on the Personal and Family Genealogy Pages of the Lunenburg County GENWEB Web Site were major sources.

Finally, thanks to CBGHA especially to Norm MacDonald and Roger Tobin for making me part of the cbgen.org team. Roger has been especially helpful in identifying “the things that go bump in the night” for material that I submit for publication.
